Diletti Pinot Noir Porongurup

ASSESSMENT

Colour: Bright, Ruby.

Bouquet: Whole bunch fermentation is driving the bouquet, a seductive, savoury perfume of morish herbs and spice, with a bright line of red berries adding freshness.

Palate: The red berries are bright and juicy on the front palate, providing plenty of fruit sweetness but is kept in check by a refreshing red bitters character. An undercurrent of bouquet garni herbs keeps the palate morish. Besides the herb and spice notes, the whole bunches have imparted a super fine and silky tannin structure that is in perfect balance with the natural acidity running through the palate. The tannin and acid harmony drives an amazingly long and fine finish. Very approachable while young but will reward careful cellaring, up to 10 years.

FOOD ACCOMPANIMENT

Pair with Woodfired Pizza, Grilled Pork Sausages, Mushroom Toasties.

CELLARING POTENTIAL

Up to 10 years.
